1. Duncan[1] Carmichael was born Abt. 1730 in Lismore, Argyll, Scotland, and died Abt. 1800 in Stokes Co., NC. He married Miss Ensley Abt. 1751 in Lismore, Argyll, Scotland. She was born Bef. 1737 in ?, and died Unknown in ?.

Notes for Duncan Carmichael:

"Duncan Carmichael was born in Scotland and came to Virginia in 1763 and bringing his two sons, Duncan Carmichael Jr. age 11 and Archibald Carmichael age 9, with him." THE HERITAGE OF CASWELL COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA 1985 "Duncan Carmichael, Sr. was on the tax list in Cumberland Parish, Lunenberg County, Virginia for the year 1764." THE heritage of caswell county north carolina 1985

It is believed Duncan and his family entered through the port of Norfolk headed for Kentucky with its promises of rich farm land. In Scotland he was a gentlemen's gentleman and had married a bar maid. Ensley is believed to be Duncan Sr.'s wife's maiden name because of the reoccurance of the name among descendants, the common naming practice of passing the maiden name down through children, and the unknown origin of Ensley. They brought their three children, Nancy, Duncan and Archibald. The horse and wagon they bought gave out near what is now Danville, VA. They stayed there, calling it "Kaintuck" (Kentucky) which still exists as an intersection with a gas station on it. They named it that because of their dream of Kentucky. He stayed in the general area and died there. The area he was last known to be is covered by a lake. The Carmichael descendants were said to be stocky, long torso, and short legs. David Lee Carmichael discovered Nancy"s identification through a Revolutionary War Record bequest addressed to "her loving Brother Duncan Carmichael."

Notes for Benjamin Meredith:

Obituary MEREDITH Rebecca and Ben Meredith, daughter and son of Fred and Mary Meredith, have been summoned from this earthly life to their eternal home. This home until January had been unbroken. But measles attacked the children and Rebecca the twelve-year-old daughter, who had for five months been confined to her room with lung trouble, left parents and friends to live with the angels. Bright, cheerful Rebecca loved and loving, it was sad to let her go, but doubly the hearts bleed, for on the 8th day of March, Ben, the only son, aged seventeen years, died of lung trouble as a result of measles. Kind hands of loving friends and neighbors, and medical skill did all to alleviate the suffering of sister and brother, but - - - - - - - (rest missing).

Newspaper Obituary GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN
Only a flower plucked in its prime; Only a lily gathered from time.
Rebecca E. Meredith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meredith died at their home on South Cook street, Monday, January 25th, 1904. Aged 11 years, 5 months and 11 days. On account of the severe weather and sickness in the family no furneral was arranged for the present. Devotional exercises were conducted at the home by Rev. DuVail of the F. M. church and internment at the Greenwell.. She leaves a father, mother, five sisters and one brother to mourn their loss. Rebecca had for some time been afflicted with lung trouble, having been confined to her bed for several months when she took the Measles. This soon proved to much for her delicate frame and death resulted in a few days.
David Carmichael, of Bloomington, W. A. Meredith of Greene county and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sparks, of Terre Haute visited the family in their affliction.

CARMICHAEL

BRIEF HISTORY AND NAME ORIGIN

The Carmichaels have been settled on the lands in the Upper Ward of Lanarkshire, from which they derive their name, for almost 800 years. This location is in the central border (South) area of Scotland. The Chiefs of the Name have been proprietors of these lands for six centuries. Originally, the Carmichael lands were a part of the Douglasdale territory granted to the Earls of Douglas by King Robert the Bruce in 1321.

Robert de Carmichael is the first name of record, being mentioned in the Dryburgh Abbey Charter in the year 1226. Between 1374–1384, William, Earl of Douglas and Mar, gave a charter to the Carmichael lands to Sir John de Carmichael. This Sir John was one of the knights who supported the Douglas faction in their struggle for power in Scotland and their forays across the English border. this grant of a large piece of Douglas territory was undoubtedly a reward for Sir John's knightly services and the supplying of Carmichael men-at-arms, according to feudal customs of the time, probably adopted the name of Carmichael to show from whence they came and to whom they owed their allegiance, the proprietor of the lands recognized as the the Chief of the Name of Carmichael.

The Barony of Carmichael was confirmed to the Head of the Family and Clan in 1414, eventually becoming a landed estate of over 19,000 acres in the Parishes of Carmichael, Pettinain, and Carluke. Nearly as much land was also owned by cadet (blood relatives of the Chief) branches of the family. The limits of the barony contain around 2,800 acres today because successive land sales were necessitated to offset modern inheritance taxes.

Religion has played an important part in the history of Scotland. A church on Kirk Hill within the estate is the birthplace of our name. In the years after the Norman-French conquest of England in 1066, many of these dissatisfied conquerors took refuge in Scotland and were given grants of land by King Malcolm III. His wife, Queen Margaret, a devout Roman Catholic, effected a complete change in the Kingdom from the ancient Culdee faith to Catholicism. The earliest survey of the church in Scotland in 1116 refers to "Llanmichel" church on this site. (The 'Llan' is the old British word for church and the 'michel' is St. Michael to whom the church was dedicated).

This site was formerly an old Briton stone fort, known as a "caer" in the ancient tongue. When surnames were adopted, the "caer" along with the name of "Michel", from St. Michael for whom the church was named, became "Caermichel" and then "Carmichael" as it is today.

The present church in the estate is about one mile northwest of the original site at Kirk Hill. It was built in 1750 and remodeled in 1904-5. The religion now is the Church of Scotland, founded by John Knox, and is very similar to the Presbyterian Church in the United States today.

In addition to the Lanarkshire Carmichaels, there are other groups of Carmichaels of record. Among these are Carmichael of Arthurstone; County Cork and County Tyrone Carmichaels of Ireland; Sir James Carmichael of Kingston, Surrey; and Carmichael-Galloway in Ottawa, Canada. In Scotland, around Carmichael, there are the Carmichael-Anstruthers, the Carmichaels of Eastend, and the Carmichaels of Skirling.

There are also the Highland Carmichaels from Appin and the Isle of Lismore, who may not have a genealogical or land wise connection with the Carmichaels of Carmichael. Most probably, these people were MacMichaels, etc., who changed their name in the 17th Century, "probably under the impression that they were accommodating themselves to a higher civilisation." These Carmichaels could wear either the tartan of Stewart of Appin or the MacDougall tartan, being septs of those two clans.

Chief Richard Carmichael of Carmichael, 26th Baron of Carmichael, 30th Chief of the Name and Arms of Carmichael, is presently making a concerted effort to unite Carmichaels of all backgrounds. There is a distinctive Carmichael tartan, a specimen of which is in the Collection of The Highland Society of London, signed and sealed by Carmichael of Arthurstone in 1907. Richard is urging all Carmichaels to unite and claim allegiance to one name, and for all, who are not presently living within any territorial jurisdiction of the Stewarts or MacDougalls, to wear the Carmichael tartan. This opinion is justified by the opinion of Sir Ian Moncreiffe of that Ilk, Bart., Albany Herald of Arms at the Court of the Lord Lyon. Sir Ian is considered the leading authority on these matters and in his book, Simple Heraldry, he writes:

> "... in clannish Scotland where plain arms are the mark of a chief, there can only be on Chief of any surname – and so, any man who bears (or takes) that surname comes beneath that Chief's banner."

Therefore, from this opinion, all those bearing the name of Carmichael should show their allegiance to Carmichael of Carmichael.

Richard, the present Chief, was an accountant in New Zealand in 1980. Upon the death of his cousin that year, he was advised of his inheritance as the 30th Chief of the Name and 26th Baron of the ancient Lands of Carmichael. He was also advised that the inheritance taxes were so large that it probably wouldn't be worth his while to return to Scotland. However, he did decide to return and take his inheritance. On 1 September 1981, the matriculation of the Arms of the 30th Chief was completed and his membership in the Standing Council of Scottish Chiefs was confirmed.

Richard resides on the estate at West Mains of Carmichael with his wife Patricia, son Andrew, and daughters Marama and Sarah.

The new Chief was very keen on reestablishing the traditional unity of Scottish families within the Carmichael. To this end, he has established an organization known as 'Clan Carmichael' and is working to develop a unified family of Carmichaels from the four corners of the globe.

Since taking his office, Richard has hosted five International Gatherings of the Clan at Carmichael, Scotland. His intent is to have three gatherings each decade. The first was in 1983, then 1986, 1990, 1993, 1996. The next is scheduled for the year 2000 to ring in the new millennium. He has published, and sent to Clan Members, 31 newsletters through November 1997, 'The Broken Spear', containing historical and genealogical information. A major project of his organization is to obtain a greater proportion of the estate in Scotland. Richard has started a Trust by donating 520 acres to the National Trust in Scotland, so there will always be a Carmichael, Scotland.

A companion organization, now known as Clan Carmichael USA, was established in the United States in 1983, at that time primarily to get a group organized to attend the first international gathering. since then, this organization has grown considerably. In its growth, several interested Carmichaels had assumed titles of 'Commissioner' to promote various activities of the organization. Newsletters, named The Eagle Gate in honor of the eagle gates at the East entrance to the Carmichael estate in Scotland, are published quarterly by this organization. Clan tents have been manned at several of the Highland Games throughout the U.S. Chief Richard has been a guest, sometimes more than once, to the games at Grandfather Mountain, NC, Glasgow, KY, and Stone Mountain, GA.

Since we had a huge turnout of members for Richard's visit to Stone Mountain in 1991, a USA Clan meeting was held. The members voted to incorporate Clan Carmichael USA. The thirteen existing Commissioners were elected to serve as the first Board of Directors. The Board then elected an executive committee from the Board membership: President Robert D. Carmichael, 1st Vice President D. Helton Carmichael, 2nd Vice President Don E. Carmichael, Secretary Treasurer Alana Carmichael Nigro, and Immediate Past President John D. 'Micky' Carmichael. The remaining Board members were Antoinette 'Toni' Carmichael-Calandria, William M. 'Billy Mac' Carmichael, Arthur C. Carmichael, Jr., Charles Kerner, Col. Clifford Carmichael Lowery, June Milton, Rodney Waltman, and Linda Wright.

At the Annual Meeting held in 1993 during the gathering at Carmichael, Scotland, Bob was moved to Past President, Helton to President, Don to 1st Vice President, and William M. 'Billy Mac' was elected to 2nd Vice President. Alana was reelected as Secretary/Treasurer. Linda Wright declined to run for the Board of Directors again. The other directors whose terms had expired were all reelected and three new Directors were elected; William Carmichael Bolger, John 'Jack' Carmichael, and Richard Mark Nigro, for a six year term.

The 1995 Annual Meeting was held at Monterey, CA. Board Members reelected for a 6 year term were Toni Calandria, June Milton, Rodney Waltman, and Alana Carmichael Nigro. A newly elected member was B. Wayne Carmichael. Officers for the Clan were reinstated for another two year term.

The 1997 Annual Meeting was held at Brunswick, ME. Reelected Board members for a six year term were Arthur C. Carmichael, Jr., D. Helton Carmichael, Don E. Carmichael, and John D. 'Micky' Carmichael. Newly elected for his first term was John Carmichael. Clan Officers elected from the Board for a two year term were Past President D. Helton Carmichael, President Don E. Carmichael, 1st Vice President Billy Mac Carmichael, 2nd Vice President Rodney Waltman, and Secretary/ Treasurer Alana Carmichael. Bob Carmichael died before completing his term. Clifford Lowery was appointed to fill the vacancy for 1998 until an election at the Annual Meeting at Glasgow, KY, in 1998 by the members to fill the vacancy. This term will expire in 1999.

The Glasgow Highland Games was the site of the 1998 Annual Meting. Clifford Lowery was elected to fill out the term created by the death of Robert 'Bob' Carmichael. As this was an off year, no other elections were held.

The 1999 Annual Meeting was held at Pleasanton, CA. Board members reelected were John 'Jack' Carmichael, William M. 'Billy Mac' Carmichael and William Carmichael Bolger. Newly elected members for their first term were Kathryn M. Gambill and Grover T. Brinson. All officers were elected to serve another two year term.

As a tax exempt organization, Clan Carmichael USA has as its objectives to:

— promote public knowledge of and interest in Scottish culture, such as literature, music, poetry, and art,

— encourage and support education and training in piping, dancing, and athletic contests,

— support educational programs in Scottish culture, and — engage in charitable ventures such as shall preserve Scottish customs, tradition, and heritage.

Membership and participation, of all Carmichaels, relatives of Carmichaels, and others interested in Carmichael heritage is solicited for either or both of the Clan Carmichael organizations to help in fulfilling the purposes and objectives. A portion of membership dues are deductible for Income Tax purposes, as well as any other donations made to Clan Carmichael USA.

Clan Carmichael Badge and Motto

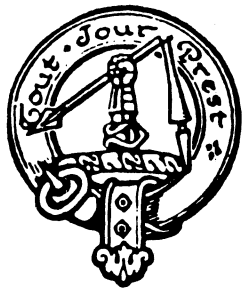
The Clan Carmichael badge is the broken spear, in hand, and is the crest of the Chief's own arms. This badge, shown at the right, can be worn by all Clan members. The Ensigns Amorial, featuring the crest atop a shield featuring a red and blue fess, and sided by knight in armour and a rearing horse, are the personal Arms of the Chief of the Name of Carmichael, and are therefore used only by him.



CARMICHAEL

The motto is 'TOUT JOUR PREST', (too zhure pray), which is ancient French for 'Always Ready'. In some cases, this has been spelled as 'Toujours Prest' or 'Toujours Pret', which was used during the 19th and 20th centuries, but this spelling has now been discarded in favour of the earlier form used by the original Carmichaels of Carmichael.

The traditional hero of the Carmichael family is Sir John de Carmichael of Meadowflat, later of Carmichael, who faught in France during his father's, William Carmichael, lifetime, with the Scottish army sent to the aid of the French in their war against an English invasion army. On 22 March 1421, at the Battle of Bauge', Sir John rode in battle against the English commander, the Duke of Clarence and brother of King Henry V of England. Sir John unhorsed the Duke in the charge and in the process broke his spear.

The Duke's fall so demoralized the English that they fled from the field, leaving the Scots victorious. To commemorate this deed, the Carmichaels bear the broken spear as their crest and the same device constitutes the clan badge. This event is colorfully described in verse in the poem below, The Ballad of the Broken Spear, written by Col. A. Strom Carmichael-Galloway of Canada.

THE BALLAD OF THE BROKEN SPEAR

(Battle of Bauge', 22 March 1421)

Sir John de Carmichael rode out at Bauge',
Comparisoned argent and gules, so they say.
From the rowels of his spurs to the point of his lance,
He was armed to do combat for Charles, King of France.

Under Buchan's command with a train of his name,
He rode in pursuit of both honor and fame,
The plumes of his great helm were azure and gules,
And the arms he displayed obeyed heraldry's rules.

So fesswise these tinctures were wreathed on his shield,
As he rode in full armour to that bloody field,
With his banner behind him held high by his squire,
A milky white steed bore the knight o'er the mire.

The English were there, France's Charles to dethrone,
So England's King Henry could take for his own
The Kingdom of France 'neath his sceptre and sway,
And thus came these hosts to the field of Bauge'.

The knighthood of Scotland was there by the score,
Stewarts and Swintons, Buchanans and more.
Their banners waved proudly, their spears held in rest
Awaiting the melee to prove who was best.

Across the green meadows arrayed like the Scots,
The English awaited the archers' first shots,
For the arrows of each side must darken the sky,
Ere the noble and knightly durst shout their war cry.

Yet, soon came the clash of both armour and beast,
As the fervour and fierceness of battle increased,
To Thomas of Clarence the message was clear
That the moment of shock and of slaughter was near.

The trumpets of Scotland blared loud their shrill notes
To alert the brave men in armorial coats.
And the rustle of banners and raising of shields
Gave a fine dash of colour to those fatal fields.

With snorting and neighing the horses fast ran,
And Sir John de Carmichael was well in the van.
His spear, it was leveled one target to sting -
That target was Clarence, next kin to the King.

Through the ranks of the English, Carmichael rode on,
In the lead of all others his bright armour shone.
And the plumes on his helmet of red and blue,
Danced over the melee his warhorse dashed through.

At the lions and lillies on Clarence's coat,
He levelled his spear, as there came from his throat
The sound of his war cry for Clarence to hear:
"A Carmichael!" he shouted - then lunged with his spear.

The spear of Carmichael was broken in twain
On Clarence's shield, but that loss was gain,
For the royal duke careened from his saddlery rich,
And fell from his horse with a hard headlong pitch.

Still clutching his spear, Carmichael's hand flew
To his sword at his side, the fight to renew.
But behind him had followed, their hopes just the same,
Four knights in pursuit of both fortune and fame.

MacLellan and Swinton and Buchanan too,
Went headlong for Clarence the same deed to do.
Their lances were levelled, their cry on their lips,
And the great sword of knighthood swung from their hips.

While Stewart of Buchan, the earl in command,
Had likewise adhered to a private demand -
The brother of England's King Henry to kill,
Thus his own cup of glory with royal blood to fill.

On the ground in his armour the royal duke lay with five knights determined his Highness to slay.
And as a reward, so the story is told,
To make off with his coronet fashioned in gold!

Swinton's spear pierced an eye, ripp'd the duke's naked face,
For his great steed had leaped to the head of the race.
But Buchanan the earl slew the royal ducal prince,
Although men have argued this claim ever since.

'Twas Stewart of Buchan with an axe in his hand,
Struck the blow that was fatal - so most understand,
As Buchanan made off with the gold ducal crown,
And thus won himself a degree of renown!

Yet, MacLellan, a knight of but few things to boast
Told the tale to his own folk that he did the most.
In K'koobry 'tis held and for centuries been said,
That he slew the duke, snatched the crown from his head.

As to who slew the duke, it matters not much,
And less who the coronet managed to clutch.
The truth of the matter is victory was forced
By the fact that Carmichael the royal duke unhorsed.

'Tis the spear of Carmichael that men should salute,
Not the theft of a crown, or the axe of a brute.
So the spear of Carmichael that led all the rest,
Is treasured today as the Carmichael crest!

A Genealogy of Hoagy Carmichael

THE ANCESTORS OF HOAGY CARMICHAEL

Compiled by Stephen M. Brown

A Brief Synopsis of the CARMICHAEL/CAMPBELL and ROBISON/SKIRVIN direct family lines.

HOAGY'S GRANDPARENTS were...

Michael Taylor Carmichael, married Laura Emma Campbell

Alexander Robison, married Mary Catherine Skirvin

Duncan Carmichael (1) arrived in America from Lanark, Lanarkshire, Scotland, in 1763, with two of his sons that we know of; Duncan and his younger brother Archibald (2), born in 1754. It is not known who elder Duncan's wife was. They settled for a time in Virginia on the North Carolina border. Archibald was a soldier out of Caswell County, Virginia, in the Revolutionary War. They later settled in Stokes/Surry Counties, North Carolina. Archibald married Elizabeth Nix or Hix, born in 1755 in Scotland. They had a son Richard (3), who married Mary Graves, daughter of Peter Graves; their lineage is unknown. Archibald and Elizabeth both died in Stokes/Surry, North Carolina.

Richard had a son Peter (4), who married Lydia Teague, also from that North Carolina county, Teague (but we think really Deeg, German). Her ancestors: Teague/Deeg, Stoltz, Holder, Volck, Vollweiler, Krause, etc., were all from the German Palatinate (Rhenish Palatinate region). Her ancestors, Andreas Volck and wife Anna Catherine Meckel were aboard the first boatload of all German immigrants to this country. They traveled with the Lutheran minister, Joshua Kocherthal, 11 familes, 41 persons in the winter of 1708 and landed in Highland Sopus, New York (now known as Newburg, New York, 60 miles up the Hudson River from the tip of Manhattan). The year 1709 would begin the start of tens of thousands more Palatines to immigrate to our shores within the next several decades. Lydia's ancestors would stay for a generation in Eastern Pennsylvania before moving down to North Carolina to meet the Carmichaels. We have the Moravians in both Pennsylvania and North Carolina to thank for keeping very detailed records on our peoples.

In an atmosphere of anti-slavery, many families from North Carolina would move up into the newly opened areas of southern Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois. In September of 1829 our group of Carmichaels, Graves, Teagues, Holders and Volcks, and other related or unrelated families (Penningtons, Longs, Oliphants, Kirks and others) would move to Greene and Monroe Counties, Indiana. Richard and wife Mary, plus Peter and wife Lydia, settled in Greene County. Richard was a hard-shelled Baptist and eventually was buried in Clinton, Indiana, (near Kokomo) at Veneman Cemetery and Mary was buried in Monroe County in Tague Cemetery. His son Peter had a meatpacking business and a partner (J. Urmey). Peter was the treasurer of his Mason's Lodge when he died. Both are buried at Clover Hill Cemetery, Monroe County, Indiana.

Peter (4) had a son, Michael Taylor Carmichael (5), born 1845, died 1906, Monroe County, Indiana. "Grandpa Taylor," as he was known, married Laura Emma Campbell (7). She was the daughter of William Alexander Campbell (6). Her Great-great-great-great grandfather was born in Scotland and married there in 1672 to Mary McCoy. (He was Duncan Campbell (1).) They had a son, Robert (2) and Robert had a son Hugh (3) and both settled in Augusta County, Virginia, 1730s-40s. Both of them were born Ulster Scots. Hugh had a son, Hugh (4), who was in the Revolutionary War. His son, also a Hugh (5), married Polly Alexander (5). Her father William (4) and her grandfather James (3) both fought in the Revolutionary War. Laura Emma died in Indianapolis in 1949.

Laura Emma's father, William Alexander married Agness Brewster (2), daughter of James Brewster and Ellenor Williamson. Agness and her two sisters, Jennett and Ellenor, were Patriots of the Revolutionary War, by spinning wool, baking bread and melting down household utensils into bullets of Washington's Army fighting nearby. Their father James was also a Patriot. Polly's Great-grandfather, William (2) was the immigrant. He taught in a classical school, founded by his brother Robert, that was the genesis of Washington and Lee University. These Campbells, Alexanders, Malcolms, Magills, Brewster, and Williamson were all Ulster Scots Presbyterians.

Michael Taylor Carmichael and Laura Emma Campbell had a son, Howard Clyde Carmichael, born on a farm near Harrodsburg (just south of Bloomington) in 1875, and died (where?) in 1943. Howard drove a livery rig at the time he was dating and after he married Lida Mary Robison. After Hoagy was born, they traveled around the country, him finding work to support them. Eventually he became an electrical linesman who also helped to found his union. During the Spanish American War, he was the middle weight champion of his regiment. He and his wife are buried at Rose Hill Cemetery, Bloomington, Indiana.

Howard Clyde Carmichael married Lida Mary Robison in Monroe County, Indiana.

(--?--) Robison and his wife (1) were born in the North of Ireland, according to the death certificate of Alexander Robison (3). (At present I do not have their names.) They settled somewhere in Pennsylvania. Again referring to Alexander's death certificate, his father Joseph (2) and mother Margery Ann (1) were born in Pennsylvania. Joseph married Marjory Ann Shook (Shuck) in Start County, Ohio in January, 1837. They settled in Jefferson County, Ohio, where Alexander was born in 1845. By 1850 Marjory was either dead or gone and Joseph remarried, to Prudence Peterson, daughter of John. Census records for Monroe County at the turn of the century have Joseph, Prudence, and Alexander living in that county. (I have no further back on Margery Shook, but her name is German.) [NOTE: The original typescript spells this name both Margery and Marjory.]

I have never found a death certificate for Joseph and assume that he left Monroe County before his death. Alexander Robison joined the Army into the Civil War when he was only 15-years-old. He was in the Indiana Cavalry 2nd, Company G, 1861-1865. He was engaged in several battles, after which his unit was captured and, as prisoners of war, sent to Andersonville Prison. However, they mutinied onboard the train and escaped. Alexander's shoulder had been injured during saber exercises. Long after the war he had his shoulder operated on using only cold water as an anesthetic, this to remove cists, and four times during his life.

Alexander was a carpenter, as was his father Joseph. (According to Hoagy, "My Great-grandfather built the first sawn timber structure as a change from log cabins.") Alexander and his son, Munson and Leroy Burton, helped to build many of the buildings and homes in and around the Bloomington, Indiana, area. (And Hoagy helped too for a short while.)

Alexander Robison married Mary Catherine Skirvin (4) daughter of James Hartwell Skirvin (3) and Elizabeth Hedrick (1). Elizabeth was born in Lawrence County, Indiana, in 1822. (I have no further back on her.) James Skirvin was also born in 1822, but in Monroe County, Indiana. One source says he was killed as he and horses were crossing Salt Creek near where he lived—a horse kicked him. Another source says that he was in the Civil War, but I have no proof of this.

James's father was George Skirvin, the patriarch of all the Monroe County Skirvins. He was a farmer and also a coopersmith by trade. He helped found the Mt. Gilead Christian Church in Monroe County. Born in Kentucky, he was in the War of 1812 (1813-14), and was captured by Indians. The Indians had a celebration and got drunk. George pretended to get drunk with them, waited for them to fall asleep, then swam across the Ohio River to his freedom. Old George was granted Bounty Land (in Iowa) for his service.

George married Elizabeth Smith in Kentucky. (I have no further back on her.) George's father was John Skirvin (1) who married Polly (--?--). Both of them were born in c. 1750s in Virginia. After some research, my hunch is that these Skirvins (ancestors) are from the Glasgow or Lothian regions of Scotland.

Lida Mary Robison was born in 1878 in Monroe County, Indiana. She married Howard Clyde Carmichael in that county and had four children: Hoagland Howard, Geogiana (later known as Georgia), Martha Claire, and Joanne, who died very young. She was a theatre pianist and Ragtime pianist, as well as Hoagy's first teacher. She died in California in 1959.

Hoagy Carmichael has two sons by his marriage to Ruth Menardi: Hoagy Bix and Randy Bob.

CARMICHAEL

A BRIEF HISTORY

Completing The Full Circle

11th CENTURY
The Beginning of Carmichael

1058 – QUEEN MARGARET, WIFE OF KING MALCOLM III, FOUNDED A CHURCH ON WHAT IS NOW THE CARMICHAEL ESTATE. THIS WAS ONE OF THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCHES IN SCOTLAND AND WAS DEDICATED TO ST. MICHAEL. THE CHURCH WAS LOCATED ON A HILL FORT SITE KNOWN AS A "CAER". THEREAFTER, THE DISTRICT AND ITS PEOPLE BECAME CAER MICHAELS. THIS SITE, KIRKHILL, IS NOW THE CARMICHAEL OF CARMICHAEL BURIAL GROUND AND MAUSOLEUM.

12th CENTURY

1116 – THE DATE OF THE EARLIEST KNOWN SURVEY OF CHURCHES IN SCOTLAND. THE CHURCH ON THE CARMICHAEL SITE WAS REFERRED TO AS "LLANMICHEL". THE "LLAN" IS AN OLD BRITISH WORD FOR CHURCH. IN THE OLD TONGUE IT WAS ALSO KNOWN AS A "CAER".

1140 – THE BURGH OF LANARK, LOCATED ON THE WESTERN EDGE OF THE CARMICHAEL LANDS, RECEIVED ITS CHARTER FROM KING DAVID I. SINCE THEN, THE BURGH OF LANARK CELEBRATES LANARK LANIMER DAY ANNUALLY ON THE THURSDAY FALLING BETWEEN THE 6th AND 12th OF THE MONTH OF JUNE.

1179 – SOMETIME PRIOR TO THIS DATE, THE SPELLING OF THE CHURCH AND PARISH WAS CHANGED TO "KERMICHEL". THROUGH OTHER SIMILAR SPELLING CHANGES, IT EVENTUALLY BECAME "CAERMICHAEL" AND THEN FINALLY "CARMICHAEL".

13th CENTURY

1220 – ROBERT DE CARMICHAEL IS THE FIRST CARMICHAEL OF RECORD, BEING MENTIONED IN THE DRYBURGH ABBEY CHARTER OF 1220 (OR "REGISTRUM CARTARUM ABBACIE ... DE DRYBURGH").

1225 – ONE WILLIAM DE CARMICHAEL (OR "DE CREIMICHEL") WITNESSED A CHARTER.

1250 – ROBERT DE CARMICHAEL IS RECORDED IN THE DRYBURGH ABBEY CHARTER AS LORD CLEGHORN.

14th CENTURY

1350 – WILLIAM, CONSIDERED THE FIRST NAME OF "CARMICHAEL", WHO LIVED DURING THE REIGN OF DAVID BRUCE, OBTAINED A CHARTER TO THE LANDS OF PONFEIGH IN THE PARISH OF CARMICHAEL.

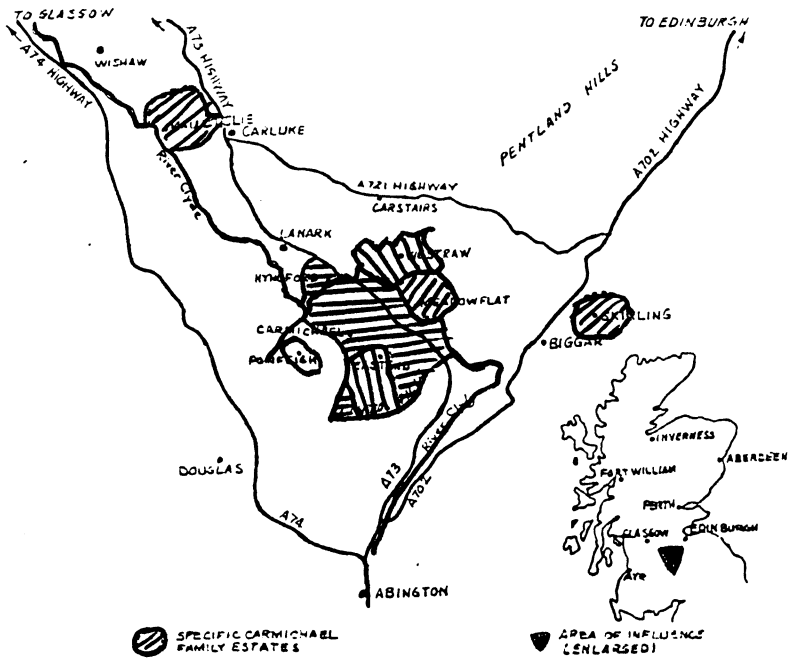
THE FORMER LANDS OF THE CARMICHAELS



THE CARMICHAEL LANDS TODAY

1370 – JOHN, 1st BARON OF CARMICHAEL, AND THE SON OF WILLIAM, RECIEVED THE CHARTER OF CARMICHAEL LANDS, LOCATED IN DOUGLASDALE, FROM WILLIAM, EARL OF DOUGLAS AND MAR. THESE LANDS ARE BOUNDED ON THE NORTH BY THE CLYDE RIVER, AND ON THE SOUTH BY TINTO HILL, WHICH IS CALLED THE HILL OF FIRE.
SIR JOHN LIVED DURING THE REIGNS OF KING ROBERT I AND KING ROBERT II.

TINTO HILL

15th CENTURY

1410 – WILLIAM, 2nd BARON OF CARMICHAEL, WAS MENTIONED IN THE PRIORY OF ST. ANDREWS RECORDS.

1414 – THE BARONY OF CARMICHAEL WAS CONFIRMED TO THE HEAD OF THE FAMILY AND CLAN. THIS EVENTUALLY BECAME A LANDED ESTATE TOTALLING SOME FOURTEEN THOUSAND ACRES IN THE PARISHES OF CARMICHAEL, PETTINAIN, AND CARLUKE.

1421 – THE TRADITIONAL HERO OF THE FAMILY IS SIR JOHN DE CARMICHAEL OF MEADOWFLAT, LATER OF CARMICHAEL, 3rd BARON OF CARMICHAEL.
AT THE BATTLE OF BEAUGE' IN FRANCE, ON 22 MARCH, THE SCOTTISH ARMY WAS FIGHTING IN SUPPORT OF THE FRENCH AGAINST AN ENGLISH INVASION. SIR JOHN MET THE DUKE OF CLARENCE, THE ENGLISH COMMANDER AND BROTHER OF ENGLAND'S KING HENRY V, IN BATTLE. HE UNHORSED THE DUKE BREAKING HIS SPEAR IN THE PROCESS. AT THE FALL OF THEIR LEADER, THE ENGLISH TROOPS WERE ROUTED. THE 'BROKEN SPEAR' THUS BECAME THE EMBLEM ON THE CREST OF THE ENSIGNS ARMORIAL OF THE CHIEF OF THE NAME AND ARMS OF CARMICHAEL, AND THE EMBLEM ON THE CLAN CARMICHAEL BADGE.

THE CARMICHAEL CREST

CARMICHAEL CLAN BADGE

2) ROBERT, WHO IS THE ANCESTOR OF THE CARMICHAELS OF BALMEDIE.
3) JOHN, WHO WAS THE PROVOST OF ST. ANDREW.

c. 1485 – SOME OF THE CARMICHAELS OF LANARKSHIRE STARTED SPREADING NORTHWARD FROM THE DOUGLAS TERRITORY OF CARMICHAEL TO THE DOUGLAS TERRITORY OF GALLOWAY, AND THEN ON NORTHWARD TO LISMORE. THESE CARMICHAELS THEN ADOPTED GAELIC FORMS OF THEIR NAME, SUCH AS 'MAC MICHEL' OR 'MAC GILLEMHEICEIL' (SON OF THE SERVANT OF ST. MICHAEL). LATER WHEN THE STEWARTS OF GALLOWAY MOVED NORTHWARD TO UNITE WITH THEIR KINSMEN AT APPIN, THE MACMICHAELS, ETC., MOVED WITH THEM. THESE MACMICHAELS WERE VERY NUMEROUS AND SUFFERED MANY CASUALTIES AT THE BATTLE OF CULLODEN IN 1745. AROUND THIS TIME, SOME MACMICHAELS ACCOMMODATED THEIRSELVES BY REVERTING BACK TO THEIR "HIGHER CIVILISATION" AND ADOPTED THE CARMICHAEL SPELLING OF THEIR NAME. SO STRONG WERE THEY, THAT THEY BECAME SEPTS OF THE STEWARTS OF APPIN, AND OTHER CARMICHAELS NEARBY BECAME SEPTS OF MACDOUGAL.

THE CHIEF'S CHALLENGE TO CARMICHAELS WORLDWIDE

"WE HAVE A NEW AND EXCITING CLAN AND WE ARE NO LONGER RESTRICTED BY ANCIENT BOUNDARIES AND ANIMOSITIES AND WE WILL REVIVE AND BUILD OUR ORGANISATION FOR THE AGE WE LIVE IN.

IF YOU DESCEND FROM THE HIGHLANDER, AND THERE ARE PEOPLE IN THE WESTERN HIGHLANDS WHO DO NOT APPRECIATE YOUR WEARING OF THE CARMICHAEL CREST ..., IT IS BECAUSE THEY WANT YOU TO KEEP YOUR ALLEGIANCE FIRMLY WHERE YOUR FOREFATHER'S WAS - i.e., TO MACDOUGAL OR STEWART OF APPIN. EQUALLY, IF YOU ARE FROM LANARKSHIRE, THERE ARE PEOPLE IN THE BORDERS WHO BELIEVE YOU SHOULD NOT WEAR A TARTAN AND ORGANISE A CLAN.

BOTH ARE EQUALLY WRONG BECAUSE THIS IS HISTORY IN THE MAKING - CARMICHAELS ARE WORLDWIDE; NOT HIGH AND LOW; AND IF WE WILL CONTINUE TO ORGANISE AS UNIFIED SCOTS, HERITAGE PEOPLE PROUD OF OUR ORIGINS, WHETHER OF LANARKSHIRE OR LISMORE, BUT PREPARED TO STAND UP FOR THE NEW CLAN CARMICHAEL AS WE ENTER THE 21st CENTURY.

WE CARMICHAELS CAN DO BOTH! WE CAN HAVE OUR INDIVIDUAL HERITAGE AND OUR COMMON GOAL AND FUTURE. "TOUT JOUR PREST" RICHARD, SEPT. 1988
